INFORMATION REPORT REPORT NO. COUNTRY Sulgaria DATE DISTR. 12 Nov. 1952 Military Information from the Sweti Vrach Area NO. OF PAGES1 NO. OF PAGES1 NO. OF PAGES1 NO. OF PAGES1 SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. 25X1 SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 25X1 1. In July 1952, the headquarters and men of 2 Infantry Establion of 14 Infantry Regiment were located in Sweti Vrach. The battalion numbered approximately 600 men. A machine gau company, an artillary bettery with recurses of the battalion. The 2 Pattalion was moved to Sweti Vrach from Fetrich in 1951. 2. Since Nay 1952, a unit of special "Soriet" troops has been located between the villages of Igralishies (Wij3k E299) and Mikudin (Wij3k E293) in an area approximately 20 kilozeters west of Sweti Vrach from Fetrich in 1951. 3. In 1951, new barracks were constructed in Sweti Vrach near the crossroads of the Soria-Petrich and Sweti Vrach-Gara Sweti Vrach highways. The new barracks consists of a cas-story building 100 meters long and to meters wide. A warehouse and a stable are mear the barracks. In July 1992, units of 2 Infantry battalion were quartered in these barracks. In July 1992, units of 2 Infantry battalion were quartered in these barracks. In July 1992, units of 2 Infantry battalion were quartered in these barracks. In July 1992, units of 2 Infantry battalion were quartered in these barracks. In July 1992, units of 2 Infantry battalion were quartered in these barracks. In July 1992, units of 2 Infantry battalion were quartered in these barracks. X1 h. The border some in the area of Petrich and Sveti-Vrach has two parts; Zone A-1 extends approximately 20 kilometers for the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 20 kilometers for the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 20 kilometers for the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 20 kilometers for the border. Care Pirin is outside the border cone.	INFORMATION REPORT REPORT NO. CD NO. CD NO. DATE DISTR. 12 Nov. 1952 SUBJECT Military Information from the Sveti Vrach Area DATE OF INFO. PLACE ACCUMPTO 25X1 REPORT NO. CD NO. NO. OF PAGES1 NO. OF ENCLS. (LISTED BELOW) SUPPLEMENT TO
COUNTRY Eulgaria: SUBJECT Military Information from the Sveti Vrach Area NO. OF PAGES1 NO. OF ENCLS. GENERAL SHAPE SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 1. In July 1952, the headquarters and men of 2 Infantry Battalion of 14 Infantry Regiment were located in Sveti Vrach. The battalion numbered approximately 600 men. A machine gun company, an artilizery battery with two guns, a communications platoon, and a supply platoon were attached to the headquarters of the battalion. The 2 Sattalion was moved to Eventi Vrach from Fetrich in 1951. 2. Since May 1952, a unit of special "Soviet" troops has been located between the viilages of gradishte (wild) Regions of Sveti Vrach. A locateous area is surrounded by barbed vire and is guarded by Soviet troops. 3. In 1951, new bernacks were constructed in Sveti Vrach near the crossroads of the Sofia-Petrich and Sveti Vrach-Cars Sveti Vrach has been located or the Sofia-Petrich and Sveti Vrach-Cars Sveti Vrach highways. The new barracks consisty of a one-story building 100 maters long and 40 maters wide. A warehouse and a stable are mear the harracks. In high particles of the communications company in Binitii, and the other two trained in Kyntericated approximately 20 kilometers from the classes of 1923, 1926, and 1928 who were called for two months training in the summer of 1952. One trained with the communications company in Binitii, and the other two trained in Kyntericated approximately 20 kilometers from the classes of 1923, 1926, and 1928 who were called for two months training in the summer of 1952. One trained with the communications company in Binitii, and the other two trained in Kyntericated approximately 20 kilometers from the totage and Zone A-2 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the totage in the summer of the content of the proce	COUNTRY Bulgaria DATE DISTR. 12 Nov. 1952 SUBJECT Military Information from the Sveti Vrach Area NO. OF PAGES1 DATE OF INFO. PLACE ACCUMENT TO
SUBJECT Military Information from the Sveti Vrach Area NO. OF FAGES1 NO. OF ENCLS. MINTO. PLACE ACQUIRED 25X1 SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. 25X1 THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 1. In July 1952, the headquarters and men of 2 Infantry Bettalion of 14 Infantry Regiment were located in Sveti Vrach. The battalion numbered approximately 600 men. A machine gun company, an artillery bettery with two guns, a communications platon, and a supply platon were attached to the headquarters of the battalion. The 2 Sattalion was moved to 8 Sveti Vrach from Ferrich in 1951. 2. Since May 1952, a unit of special "Soviet" troops has been located between the villages of Egralists (Will) 2309) and Nikudin (Will) 2309) in an area approxi- mately 20 kilometers west of Sveti Vrach. A 10-decare area is surrounded by barbed wire and is guarded by Borist troops. Decared and surrounded by coperates some "machines." There are no Bulgarian units in the area. 3. In 1951, new barracks were constructed in Sveti Vrach hard highways. The new barracks consists of a cne-story building 100 maters long and No motors wide. A avariouse and a stable are mear the barracks. In July 1952, units of 2 Infantry battalion were quartered in these barracks. K1 4. When the stable of two months training in the summer of 1958. One trained with the communications company in Simiti, and the other two trained in Kyustovial. Extends approximately 20 kilometers from the classes of 1963, 1926, and 1928 who were called for two months training in the summer of 1958. One trained with the communications company in Simiti, and the other two trained in Kyustovial. 5. The border scne in the area of Petrich and Sveti-Vrach has two parts; Zone A-1 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the classes of 1963, 1926, and 1928 who were called for two months training in the summer of 1958. One trained with the communications company in Simiti, and the other two trained in Kyustovial.	COUNTRY Bulgaria DATE DISTR. 12 Nov. 1952 SUBJECT Military Information from the Sveti Vrach Area NO. OF PAGES1 DATE OF INFO. PLACE ACCUMPTS DATE DISTR. 12 Nov. 1952 NO. OF ENCLS. (LISTED BELOW) SUPPLEMENT TO	_
SUBJECT Military Information from the Sveti Vrach Area NO. OF ENCLS. NO. OF ENCLS. NO. OF ENCLS. SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. 25X1 SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 1. In July 1952, the headquarters and men of 2 infantry Eattain of 14 infantry Regiment were located in Sveti Vrach. The tattain numbered approximately 600 men. A machine gun company, an artillery battery with two guns, a communications platoon, and a supply platton were strached to the headquarters of the battain on. The 2 Battain was moved to Sveti Vrach from Petrich in 1951. 2. Since May 1952, a unit of special "Soviet" troops has been located between the villages of Igraliatic (Will) E3209) and Nikudin (Nil34 E3203) in an area approxi- mately 20 kilometer west of Sveti Vrach. A 10-decare area is surrounded by barbed wire and is guarded by Soviet Vrops. John units in the area. J. In 1951, new Marracis were constructed in Sveti Vrach near the crossroads of the Sofia-Petrich and Sveti Vrach-Gars Sveti Vrach highways. The new barracks consisty of a one-story building 100 meters long and 40 meters wide. A warehouse and a stable are near the barracks. M The border sone in the area of Petrich and Sveti-Vrach has two parts; Zone A-1 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the classes of 1983, 1926, and 1928 who were called for two months training in the summer of 1952. One trained with the communications company in Bintil, and the other two trained in Kyuterdiil. The border zone in the area of Petrich and Sveti-Vrach has two parts; Zone A-1 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 26 kilometers further north. Gara Firin is outside the border zone.	SUBJECT Military Information from the Sveti Vrach Area NO. OF PAGES1 NO. OF ENCLS. (LISTED BELOW) PLACE ACCUMENT
SUBJECT Military Information from the Sveti Vrach Area NO. OF ENCLS. NO. OF ENCLS. NO. OF ENCLS. SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. 25X1 SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 1. In July 1952, the headquarters and men of 2 infantry Eattain of 14 infantry Regiment were located in Sveti Vrach. The tattain numbered approximately 600 men. A machine gun company, an artillery battery with two guns, a communications platoon, and a supply platton were strached to the headquarters of the battain on. The 2 Battain was moved to Sveti Vrach from Petrich in 1951. 2. Since May 1952, a unit of special "Soviet" troops has been located between the villages of Igraliatic (Will) E3209) and Nikudin (Nil34 E3203) in an area approxi- mately 20 kilometer west of Sveti Vrach. A 10-decare area is surrounded by barbed wire and is guarded by Soviet Vrops. John units in the area. J. In 1951, new Marracis were constructed in Sveti Vrach near the crossroads of the Sofia-Petrich and Sveti Vrach-Gars Sveti Vrach highways. The new barracks consisty of a one-story building 100 meters long and 40 meters wide. A warehouse and a stable are near the barracks. M The border sone in the area of Petrich and Sveti-Vrach has two parts; Zone A-1 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the classes of 1983, 1926, and 1928 who were called for two months training in the summer of 1952. One trained with the communications company in Bintil, and the other two trained in Kyuterdiil. The border zone in the area of Petrich and Sveti-Vrach has two parts; Zone A-1 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 26 kilometers further north. Gara Firin is outside the border zone.	SUBJECT Military Information from the Sveti Vrach Area NO. OF PAGES1 DATE OF INFO. PLACE PLACE ACCUMPTS SUPPLEMENT TO
DATE OF INFO. PLACE ACQUIRED 25X1 SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 1. In July 1952, the headquarters and men of 2 Infantry Battalion of 14 Infantry Regiment were located in Sveti Vrach. The battalion numbered approximately 500 men. A machine gum company, an artillery battery with two gums, a communications platoon, and a supply platoon were attached to the headquarters of the tattalion. The 2 Battalion was moved to Sveti Vrach from Petrich in 1951. 2. Since May 1952, a unit of special "Soviet" troops has been located between the villages of Igraliants (Walph EB309) and Nikudin (Xalph EB303) in an area approximately 20 kilometers west of Sveti Vrach. A 10-decare area is surrounded by barbed wire and is guarded by Soviet troops. 3. In 1951, new barracks were constructed in Sveti Vrach near the crossroads of the Sofia-Petrich and Sveti Vrach-ders Sveti Vrach highways. The new barracks consists of a one-story building 100 meters long and 40 meters wide. A wavehouse and a stable are mean the barracks. In July 1952, units of 2 Infantry Battalion were quartered in these barracks in these barracks is fine the stem of the communications company in Simili, and the other two trained in Kyustendil. The border zone in the area of Petrich and Sveti-Vrach has two parts; Zone A-1 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border.	DATE OF INFO. PLACE ACCUMENTS DATE OF SUPPLEMENT TO
PLACE ACQUIRED 25X1 SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. THE SIS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION THE 25X1 THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION THE 25X1 THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION THE 25X1 THE 3X1 THE 3X1 THE 3X1 THE 4X1 THE 5 IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION THE 5X1 THE 5 IN THE 4X1 THE 5 IN	PLACE SUPPLEMENT TO
THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 1. In July 1952, the headquarters and men of 2 Infantry Battalion of 14 Infantry Regiment were located in Sveti Vrach. The battalion numbered approximately 600 men. A machine gun company, an artillery battery with two guns, a communications platoon, and a supply platoon were attached to the headquarters of the battalion. The 2 Battalion was moved to Sveti Vrach from Petrich in 1951. 2. Since May 1952, a unit of special "Soviet" troops has been located between the villages of Igralishia (%134 E2309) and Nikudin (%4134 E2303) in an area approximately 20 kilmesters were constructed in Sveti Vrach from Ferrich to the second by barbed wire and is guarded by Soviet troops. 3. In 1951, new barracks were constructed in Sveti Vrach hear the crossroads of the Sofia-Petrich and Sveti Vrach-Gara Sveti Vrach highways. The new barracks consists of a one-story building 100 meters long and 40 meters wide. A warehouse and a stable are near the barracks. In July 1952, units of 2 Infantry battalion were quartered in these barracks. 14. The border zone in the area of Petrich and Sveti-Vrach has two parts; Zone A-1 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 26 kilometers further north. Gara Firin is outside the border zone.	ACCUIPED SUPPLEMENT TO
THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 1. In July 1952, the headquarters and men of 2 Infantry Battalion of 14 Infantry Regiment were located in Sveti Vrach. The battalion numbered approximately 600 men. A machine gun company, an artillery battery with two guns, a communications platoon, and a supply platon were attached to the headquarters of the battalion. The 2 Battalion was moved to Sveti Vrach from Petrich in 1951. 2. Since May 1952, a unit of special "Soviet" troops has been located between the villages of Egralishta (N4134 E2309) and Nikudin (N4134 E2303) in an area approximately 20 kilometers west of Sveti Vrach. A lo-decare area is surrounded by barbed wire and is guarded by Soviet troops. 3. In 1951, new barracks were constructed in Sveti Vrach highways. The new barracks consists of a one-story building 100 meters long and 40 meters wide. A warehouse and a stable are near the barracks. In July 1952, units of 2 Infantry battalion were quartered in these barracks. In July 1952, units of 2 Infantry battalion were quartered in these barracks. In July 1952, units of 2 Infantry battalion were quartered extends approximately 20 kilometers from the classes of 1923, 1926, and 1928 who were called for two months training in the summer of 1952. One trained with the communications company in Bimitli, and the other two trained in Kyustendil. 5. The border zone in the area of Petrich and Sveti-Vrach has two parts; Zone A-1 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 28 kilometers further north. Gara Pirin is outside the border zone.
men. A machine gun company, an artillery battery with two guns, a communications platoon, and a supply platoon were attached to the headquarters of the battalion. The 2 Battalion was moved to Sveti Vrach from Petrich in 1951. 2. Since May 1952, a unit of special "Soviet" troops has been located between the villages of Egralishta (N4134 E2309) and Nikudin (N4134 E2303) in an area approximately 20 kilometers west of Sveti Vrach. A lo-decare area is surrounded by barbed wire and is guarded by Soviet troops. 3. In 1951, new barracks were constructed in Sveti Vrach near the crossroads of the Sofia-Petrich and Sveti Vrach-Gara Sveti Vrach highways. The new barracks consists of a one-story building 100 meters long and 40 meters wide. A warehouse and a stable are near the barracks. In July 1952, units of 2 Infantry Battalion were quartered in these barracks. 4. three reservists from the classes of 1923, 1926, and 1928 who were called for two months training in the summer of 1952. One trained with the communications company in Simitli, and the other two trained in Kyustendil. 5. The border zone in the area of Petrich and Sveti-Vrach has two parts; Zone A-1 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 28 kilometers further north. Gara Pirin is outside the border zone.
willages of Egralished (N4134 E2309) and Nikudin (N4134 E2303) in an area approximately 20 kilometers west of Sveti Vrach. A lo-decare area is surrounded by barbed wire and is guarded by Soviet troops. There are no Bulgarian units in the area. In 1951, new barracks were constructed in Sveti Vrach near the crossroads of the Sofia-Petrich and Sveti Vrach-Gara Sveti Vrach highways. The new barracks consists of a one-story building 100 meters long and 40 meters wide. A warehouse and a stable are near the barracks. In July 1952, units of 2 Infantry Battalion were quartered in these barracks. three reservists from the classes of 1923, 1926, and 1928 who were called for two months training in the summer of 1952. One trained with the communications company in Simitli, and the other two trained in Kyustendil. The border zone in the area of Petrich and Sveti-Vrach has two parts; Zone A-1 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 28 kilometers further north. Gara Pirin is outside the border zone.	men. A machine gun company, an artillery battery with two guns, a communicati platoon, and a supply platoon were attached to the headquarters of the battell.	020
3. In 1951, new barracks were constructed in Sveti Vrach near the crossroads of the Sofia-Petrich and Sveti Vrach-Gara Sveti Vrach highways. The new barracks consists of a one-story building 100 meters long and 40 meters wide. A warehouse and a stable are near the barracks. In July 1952, units of 2 Infantry Battalion were quartered in these barracks. 14. three reservists from the classes of 1923, 1926, and 1928 who were called for two months training in the summer of 1952. One trained with the communications company in Simitli, and the other two trained in Kyustendil. 5. The border zone in the area of Petrich and Sveti-Vrach has two parts: Zone A-1 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 28 kilometers further north. Gara Pirin is outside the border zone.	villages of grafishts (N4134 E2309) and Nikudin (N4134 E2303) in an area approached by 20 kilometers west of Sveti Vrach. A 10-decare area is surrounded by barbed wire and is guarded by Soviet troops.	oxi-
were called for two months training in the summer of 1952. One trained with the communications company in Simitli, and the other two trained in Kyustendil. 5. The border zone in the area of Petrich and Sveti-Vrach has two parts: Zone A-1 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 28 kilometers further north. Gara Pirin is outside the border zone.	3. In 1951, new barracks were constructed in Sveti Vrach near the crossroads of the Sofia-Petrich and Sveti Vrach-Gara Sveti Vrach highways. The new barracks consof a one-story building 100 meters long and 40 meters wide. A warehouse and a are near the barracks. In July 1952, units of 2 Infantry Battalion were supply	sist$ extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 25 kilometers further north. Gara Pirin is outside the border zone.	(1)) 18 were called for two months training in the summer of 1050 One training that he
CI ACEL EL CATUAN	were called for two months training in the summer of 1952. One trained with the communications company in Simitli, and the other two trained in Kyustendil. 5. The border zone in the area of Petrich and Sveti-Vrach has two parts: Zone A-1 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border.
GI ACEL EL GATURI.	were called for two months training in the summer of 1952. One trained with the communications company in Simitli, and the other two trained in Kyustendil. 5. The border zone in the area of Petrich and Sveti-Vrach has two parts: Zone A-1 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border.
CLASSIFICATION BECKED	were called for two months training in the summer of 1952. One trained with the communications company in Simitli, and the other two trained in Kyustendil. 5. The border zone in the area of Petrich and Sveti-Vrach has two parts: Zone A-1 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border, and Zone A-2 extends approximately 20 kilometers from the border.

Approved For Release 2004/01/28 : CIA-RDP82-00457R014800010002-9
--